- By post

Please refer to the back page of this notice for more details about how to use the above payment methods.

Important: Please read the summary below—if you do not understand it, you should consult a lawyer immediately.

Summary of rights

1. You have not paid the infringement fee described on the front page, or asked for a hearing, within 28 days after you were served with the infringement notice. That is why you have been served with this reminder notice.

Payments

2. If you pay the infringement fee for an alleged infringement offence within 28 days after you have been served with this notice, no further enforcement action will be taken for that offence. Payments should be made to the Financial Markets Authority at the address for payment specified in this notice.
If, under section 21\(3A\) or (3C)(a) of the Summary Proceedings Act 1957, you enter or have entered into a time-to-pay arrangement with the Financial Markets Authority in respect of an infringement fee payable by you, paragraphs 4(b), 4(c), 5, 6, and 7 below do not apply, and you are not entitled either to request a hearing to deny liability or to ask the court to consider any submissions (as to penalty or otherwise) in respect of the infringement.

Defence

3. You have a complete defence against proceedings for an alleged infringement offence if the infringement fee has been paid to the Financial Markets Authority, at the address for payment specified in this notice, before or within 28 days after a reminder notice in respect of the alleged offence is served on you. Late payment or payment made to any other address will not constitute a defence.

Further action

4. You should write to the Financial Markets Authority at the address for correspondence shown on the front page of this notice if you wish to—
 - (a) raise any matter relating to the circumstances of an alleged offence for consideration by the Financial Markets Authority; or
 - (b) deny liability for the alleged offence and request a court hearing; or
 - (c) admit liability for the alleged offence, but wish to have a court consider written submissions as to penalty or otherwise.

The letter should be signed.

5. You have a right to request a hearing. If you deny liability for the alleged offence and request a hearing, the Financial Markets Authority will serve you with a notice of hearing that sets out the place and time at which the matter will be heard by the court (unless the Financial Markets Authority decides not to start court proceedings).
Note: If the court finds you guilty of the offence, costs will be imposed in addition to any penalty.

6. A request for a hearing must—
 - (a) be in writing and signed by you; and
 - (b) be delivered to the Financial Markets Authority at the address for correspondence shown on the front page of this notice; and
 - (c) be delivered within 28 days after you have been served with this notice.
7. If you admit liability for the alleged offence but want the court to consider your submissions as to penalty or otherwise, you should, in your letter to the Financial Markets Authority,—
 - (a) request a hearing; and
 - (b) admit liability for the offence; and
 - (c) set out the written submissions you wish to be considered by the court.

The Financial Markets Authority will then file your letter with the court (unless the Financial Markets Authority decides not to start court proceedings). There is no provision for an oral hearing before the court if you follow this course of action.

Note: Costs will be imposed in addition to any penalty.

8. If you do not pay the infringement fee and do not request a hearing in respect of the alleged offence within 28 days after being served with this reminder notice, you will become liable to pay costs in addition to a fine (if the Financial Markets Authority decides to start court proceedings against you). The fine will be equal to the amount of the infringement fee or the amount of the infringement fee remaining unpaid.

9. When writing or making payment of an infringement fee, please indicate—
 - (a) the date of the alleged infringement offence; and
 - (b) the number of this reminder notice; and
 - (c) your full name and address for replies.

Note: All queries and correspondence regarding the infringement offence must be directed to the Financial Markets Authority at the address shown on the front page of this notice.

Further details of your rights and obligations are set out in section 21 of the Summary Proceedings Act 1957.

How to pay your infringement fee:

Please note: Payments must be made to the Financial Markets Authority within 28 days of receipt of this reminder notice. After the expiry of the 28 day period, payments must be made to the court, who will collect the infringement fee as a court imposed fine plus additional costs.

Internet Banking

This is an outline regarding paying your infringement fee by internet banking. As the terminology and processes can differ from bank to bank please contact your bank if you need help.

- Log into your personal internet banking website.
- Select the options for setting up a new bill payment that gets you to the point of “adding a new payee”. There should be a drop down box which shows a list of payees already available with your bank. Where it is available, select “Financial Markets Authority – Infringements” from the list of payees and proceed with making payment.
- Another option is for you to create a one-off bill payment to the Financial Markets Authority by simply using the bank Account Number: 03-0584-0296289-00 and entering the usual payment details for a one-off payment.
- You must enter the correct infringement notice number into the payment reference field that the Financial Market Authority, the payee will see on their bank statement. This will ensure your payment is identified and allocated correctly. The infringement notice number is on the front page of this notice – top left corner.
- Enter the full amount of the infringement notice fee.

Note: Some mobile internet banking applications do not allow you to edit the notice number. If you make an error in the notice number or can't enter the correct notice number the fee paid will not be credited to the correct notice and you may become liable for additional fees. If your mobile application does not allow you to edit the notice number, please use a computer to pay via internet banking or pay using another method.
