Proposed wealth & investment vocabulary in te reo Māori

In a climate of Māori linguistic, cultural, and financial revitalisation, recent years have seen an increased demand for enabling clear, specific discussions of wealth and investment matters in te reo Māori. However, anecdotal evidence from both industry practitioners and Māori entities suggests there is a critical shortage of the essential vocabulary required in te reo Māori for this purpose.

This project is centered on the research and development of a fundamental vocabulary of 100 wealth and investment terms. The development and promotion of this vocabulary will form a critical support for enhancing and promoting the use of te reo Māori in the wealth and investment sector, and related educational programmes. The review of existing vocabulary and the development of new vocabulary is done in collaboration with both industry and linguistic experts.

We gratefully acknowledge the invaluable assistance of our project sponsors - ASB Bank, Bank of New Zealand, GHA, Harbour Asset Management and the NZ Super Fund, the Financial Markets Authority (FMA) and the members of our project steering group, who were generous in lending their time and considerable expertise to support this project.

Project team

The project team was led by Dr Karena Kelly and Brook Taurua Grant. The project team included the nine-member steering group of wealth and investment industry experts. In addition, two licensed Māori language translators from Paetū Limited were used to support the quality assurance process for the development of new vocabulary. The research was supported by research assistant Whaearua Ross.

Dr Karena Kelly leads the undergraduate programme at Te Kawa a Māui, the School of Māori Studies at Victoria University of Wellington. Her research and teaching specialises in te reo Māori, linguistics, language policy & planning. She is a licensed Māori translator, Māori language consultant within both government and corporate sectors, teacher at national and iwi-based Kura Reo, and graduate of Te Panekiretanga o te Reo Māori - The Institute of Excellence in the Māori Language.

Brook Taurua Grant is a management consultant at GHA (accounting and business advisory firm, Rotorua), where he leads the investment services team. He has over 10 years' experience in the banking, finance, and business advisory sectors, in New Zealand, London and Dublin, and has held senior roles at Bancorp Treasury Services and BNZ. He is passionate about elevating the use of te reo Māori in the commercial sector and was the first financial commentator on the TV1 Māori language news segment Te Karere, delivering a weekly wrap of topical financial issues entirely in te reo.
